RUM

Atlantico Platino – Dominican Republic – £5.5

This handcrafted white rum is made from fresh Dominican cane juice. It is aged for over 1 year in American White Oak then finished in barrels that previously held Spanish Tempranillo. The unique combination results in an incredibly smooth and flavourful light rum.

Atlantico Reserva – Dominican Republic – £6

The solera style Reserva is slightly dry with aromas of light oak and tropical fruits. In addition, the palate finds a familiar baked spice bouquet and earthy richness. Very light with lots of vanilla and oak dancing to a long smooth finish.

Cut to the Spice – Jamaica – £6

Quality rum from Jamaica and Trinidad blended with some extra tasty treats to make this one of the best spiced rums out there. Pepper, ginger, coriander, lemon and cinnamon. Smooth and flavoursome with gorgeous citrus, caramel and vanilla notes.

Old Monk 7 year old – India – £6

A 7 year aged dark rum from Uttar Pradesh and one of the largest selling rums in the world. Distinctive, inviting sweet aromas with delicious caramel flavours.

Cargo Cult Banana Spiced – Australia – £6

Superb rum using North Queensland bananas. Intense banana on the nose and palate with caramelised brown sugar, spices with a dry finish.

Kalani Coconut Rum – Mexico – £5.5

Fresh coconut milk is fermented and then macerated in Mexican pure sugar cane rum, bringing two favourite Yucatan flavours together and giving a subtle flavour & tropical flair. A delicious coconut delight.

TEQUILA

Patrón Silver – Jalisco, Mexico – £6

Ultra smooth, premium quality tequila made from 100% Weber Blue agave. Fresh agave with citrus fruit, smooth and sweet with a light pepper finish.

Patrón Anejo – Jalisco, Mexico – £8

Handcrafted from the finest Weber Blue agave, carefully distilled in small batches. It's then aged for 12 months in a combination of French oak, Hungarian oak and used American whisky barrels. Warm amber in colour with oak, vanilla, honey and raisins on the nose and palate with a caramel, smokey notes on the finish.

Patrón el Cielo – Jalisco, Mexico – £25

Exquisite distinctiveness!
Distilled four times to unlock 100% nautally sweet and subtle agave flavours. Radiantly clear with an incomparable taste with an undeniably light, fresh and ultra smooth finish.

Café Piston – Worcestershire – £6

Piston Distillery's answer to the now discontinued Café Patron XO. A dark, sinister blend of Agave tequila and Arabica coffee gives a suave 'sipping' spirit.

VODKA

Element 29 – London – £5

Inspired by the 29th element of the periodic table: Copper. Copper stills are used throughout the distillation process of this British wheat vodka and there is a reminder of this with the copper coil that hangs down the middle of the bottle.

Piston – Worcestershire – £6

Slowly distilled 9 times at precise temperatures to create the smoothest of vodkas. Simple, pure & clean.

Black Cow – Dorset – £5.5

Vodka is made from the Whey that is left over from milk when making cheese. It is made in West Dorset using the milk from the cows that graze on the fields surrounding the distillery. This vodka has a gloriously smooth and unique creamy character.

Grey Goose – France – £6.5

Soft winter wheat from in and around Picardy plus pure spring water from Gensac in the Cognac region, nurtured and captured from field to bottle.

BOURBON

Rebel Straight Bourbon – Kentucky, USA – £6

Made from a time-honoured recipe, this Bourbon packs a punch with a defiantly smooth body and full flavour. Honey and butter on the nose. Then, traces of raisin and a warm spice finish.

Widow Jane American Oak – New York, USA – £9

This is a light, tropical, “summer” rye with aromas of cardamom, pineapple and orange peel. On the palate you can add vanilla and brown sugar, almond and apricot with a touch of white pepper to finish.

Bernheim Original Wheat Whiskey – Kentucky, USA – £13

The first straight wheat whiskey to be launched on the US market and is bottled at seven years of age. Warm, sweet and buttery on the nose with hints of spices and Morello cherries and cooked fruit. Fresh baked buns, stewed fruits and mixed nuts on the palate with a long and slightly dry finish with toasted spice.

Widow Jane Wapsie Valley – New York, USA – £26.5

An extremely rare treat made with no genetically modified crops. Organic Wapsie Valley corn, rye and barley with limestone mineral water from the Widow Jane mine in Rosendale, NY. Maple syrup and nuts on the nose, the nutty edge carries on to the palate with zesty orange flavours. Honey and spice on the finish.

Widow Jane Bloody Butcher – New York, USA – £26.5

Distilled in Redhook, Brooklyn, Heirloom farm to bottle rare bourbon using the Bloody Butcher red corn varietal plus a little malted rye and barley. Sweet oak and crackers on the nose. Dry and bright up front with vanilla and allspice on the palate. Sharp molasses, tobacco and oak on the finish.

Matured in American white oak and finished in Oloroso sherry casks.

Elegant and smooth with lipsmacking texture and flawless balance.

Fettercairn 16 Year Old Single Malt – Highland – £14

The 3rd release. Fruity and spicy. Matured in a combo of Pedro Ximenez, Oloroso and Bourbon casks. Aromas of dried fruit, cinnamon, ginger, peppery oak and vanilla with notes of raisins, baked apples, chocolate, caramel, orange zest and spice throughout the palate.

Tamdhu 18 Year Old Single Malt – Speyside – £20

A Speyside classic matured in Oloroso seasoned sherry casks sourced from Southern Spain.

Bottled at 46.8% abv and non-chill filtered, on the nose the Tamdhu 18 Year-Old delivers rich dark fruits with ripe cherry and plum. Zesty citrus notes cut through an indulgent base of nutty milk chocolate and honey-baked oats.

Mackmyra Limousin Single Malt – Sweden – £10

Matured partially in French Limousin oak casks that previously held Cognac from Maison Ferrand. Alongside this, the team also included whisky aged in Oloroso casks, American oak casks, bourbon casks, Swedish oak casks, and raspberry wine casks. Inspired by the golden hour in the French countryside, this is a mellow yet flavoursome single malt.

Hakushu Distillers Reserve Single Malt – Japan – £12

From Suntory's mountain forest distillery, nestled deep in Mt. Kaikomagatake, Hakushu is gently smoky with herbal notes. Enjoy flavours of mint, citrus, marzipan and a hint of smoke alongside a smooth texture and a long finish.

VERMOUTH

Cocchi Vermouth di Torino, Extra Dry Blanco – Italy – £4.5

Classic style from the birthplace of vermouth – Piemonte. Made with Cortese grapes and a secret blend of botanicals, including lemon peel, coriander seeds, peppermint, gentian and Artemisia, also known as absinthium. The palate offers elegant notes of fresh apple, melon and white flowers from the wine, with aromatic cardamom, wormwood, coriander, mint and lemon peel, with herbs lingering in the finish.

Cocchi Storico Vermouth di Torino, Rosso – Italy – £4.5

A favourite in the worlds best bars.

Produced according to the original recipe of Giulio Cocchi, who founded this respected House in 1891. This vermouth belongs to the sweet category using fine Moscato wine as its base, which is then infused with a secret recipe of local and exotic botanicals.
